Game Play

- "odd/even" or coin toss winner will have one of two options, choose to serve first OR choose which side they would like to start from. Teams alternate sides after a game.
- A legal serve is one that crosses the net and is either touched by an opposing player or lands within the opposing team's area of the court within the boundary lines. A serve may make contact with the net.
- The server may not step over the end line until the ball has been contacted. The width of the service area is from sideline to sideline. The depth of the service area is infinite.
- A defensive block does not count as one of the allowable contacts.
- The serve may not be blocked or spiked.
- No catching or carrying.
- Maximum of three contacts with the ball per side. No one person may make consecutive contacts.
- The ball can contact any number of body parts down to, and including the foot.
- Points are rally scored.
- Contact of the ball when spiking is legal only if a portion of the ball is in contact with the plane of the net or on the spiker's side of the net. Spikers may follow through over the net after legal contact.
- USA Volleyball Rules apply for any unmentioned rules.
